JUDGE:

RE: Invitation to Dinner-Dance
Criminal Investigation Division, USA
Fort Belvoir Officers' Club
Saturday, 29 August 1987

Major General Eugene R. Cromartie has invited you to attend the annual Criminal Investigation Division (CID) dinner-dance at Fort Belvoir Officers' Club at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, 29 August 1987. The guest speaker will be the Honorable John C. Lawn. As you recall you were the principal speaker several years ago.

This invitation is based on your friendship with the General. Since 29 August is the day you will be returning from Aspen, and therefore have a conflict, I recommend that you decline the invitation. I do not believe that it is necessary to send a substitute. If you agree, I have attached a letter of regret to General Cromartie.

STAT
Dear General Cromartie:

Thank you for your kind invitation to attend the Criminal Investigation Division Anniversary dinner-dance at Fort Belvoir Officers' Club on Saturday, August 29th. Due to a conflict in my schedule, I will be unable to join you that evening. Since I had such an enjoyable time several years ago, I regret that I will not be with you. Also, I will have to pass on sending a substitute. Please give my regards to all members of your command and remember me to Jack Lawn.

Sincerely yours,

Judge
Dear Mr. Webster:

It is a great pleasure to extend to you a cordial invitation to attend our annual CID Anniversary dinner-dance beginning at 6:30 p.m., Saturday, August 29, 1987, at the Fort Belvoir Officers' Club. Our guest speaker this year will be the Honorable John C. Lawn, Administrator, Drug Enforcement Administration. If your schedule does not permit you to attend, we would be pleased to have your designated representative attend in your behalf.

Please return the enclosed RSVP card. If you need further information, please contact Special Agent Jesse E. Day, my coordinator for this event, at 756-2022.

Sincerely,

Eugene R. Cromartie
